

Acquisition of Uniflex Personal GmbH – Further expansion of the temporary staffing division

January 2018.

Bremen. With retroactive effect to the 01.01.2018, a subsidiary of Topp Holdings GmbH acquires Uniflex Personal GmbH. For Topp Holdings, the acquisition is another step in the strategic expansion of its temporary staffing division. Uniflex Personal GmbH was a subsidiary of Uniflex Bemanning AB, which is with more than 4,000 employees, one of the largest temporary staffing firms in Scandinavia. With its branches in Dortmund, Solingen, Dresden and Stuttgart, Uniflex Personal GmbH complements the existing branch network of the temporary staffing division of Topp Holdings.

For employees and customers, the acquisition will not have a material effect on the daily operations for the foreseeable future. "We place great importance on a thoroughly planned integration. In the coming weeks, we will develop a strategy and immediately start with its implementation," says Christopher Topp, Managing Director of Topp Holdings.

Uniflex Personal GmbH employs around 70 temps in the areas of engineering, IT, industrial, logistics and office & finance.

The subsidiaries of Topp Holdings GmbH are present at more than 90 locations in Germany, Switzerland, Belgium, England, Austria, Poland and Slovakia. Every day, more than 5,600 employees work towards the success of the group.. The family-owned company looks back on more than 50 years of experience and is managed by Birger Topp, Christopher Topp and Heinz Weber. The headquarter of the group is in Bremen, Germany.
